“High Expectations, High Achievement”

Agenda for Meeting of the Labor-Management Committee

October 13, 2021, 4:00 P.M
PK-8 Media Center

1. Call Meeting to Order and Record Committee Members Present and Absent

Meeting called to order at 4:00 p.m.

Attending: Keri Griswold, Vicki Trueg, Kathy Pettengill, Mark Strabala, Nathan Marting, Andrea Covington, James Masteller

2. Discussion Items

a. Review of 2020-21 Meetings

The committee reviewed the progress monitoring chart from last year and was able to report that all items brought before the committee were resolved.

b. Social Media Challenges

The committee discussed the recent concerns presented by the Tik Tok Challenge where individuals are encouraged to vandalize school property or assault individuals. The building principals are informed of this and fortunately we have not seen many incidents in our schools.

c. Elementary Special Education Caseloads

The committee discussed high special education caseloads. Mr. Marting explained that administration is aware of this and the caseload review process will be conducted per the District Developed Service Delivery Plan. Mr. Marting has reached out to a neighboring district about the possibility of sharing special education staff if the review process indicates additional staff is required.

3. Other General Discussion Items

a. Assistance/Support for Nurse

The committee discussed the workload of the school nurse and the need for additional support. The administration has met with Nurse Missy to discuss these concerns and has developed some additional supports to help alleviate some of the workload.

4. Establish November Meeting Date, Time, and Location

The next meeting is set for Wednesday, November 10th at 4 p.m. in the PK-8

Media Center. One topic to be discussed will be a review of the changes made in the Staff Handbook in regards to employee leave.

5. Adjournment

The meeting was adjourned at 5:10 p.m.
